

Learner Code of Conduct

The Yukon Learn Society (YLS) recognizes that the conduct of Learners greatly affects the quality of an individual's educational experience.

The purpose of the Learner Code of Conduct is to establish appropriate standards of conduct while present in any YLS location or taking part in any YLS activities.

As a Member of the YLS, and as a Learner, I agree that:

- I will not harass others or discriminate against them
- I will treat the property of others with respect and dignity
- I will always maintain a respectful and professional relationship with other learners and YLS staff & tutors
 - I will be on time when I am scheduled to engage in any learning experience
 - If I am unable to attend a scheduled learning experience, I will notify the appropriate contact e.g. tutor, computer instruction or the YLS office, as soon as possible
- While at any YLS location, or while taking part in any YLS activities:
 - I will follow YLS rules, regulations, and computer use policies
 - I will not have possession of, or be under the influence of, alcohol, drugs or any controlled substance
 - I will not cause disruptions of any kind
 - I will not give gifts or cash to staff
 - I will not ask others for gifts or cash
